Re: Snider Energy continuing to serve Pacific Northwest Mobil business

Dear valued Mobil customer,

This letter is to affirm Snider Energy is an authorized Mobil lubricant distributor in the Pacific Northwest.

ExxonMobil has a strategic network of distributors across the United States and Snider Energy has been part of that network for 25 years. Additionally, ExxonMobil has a long history of serving the Pacific Northwest and is committed to maintaining the Mobil brand in this region for years to come.

Snider Energy is a third generation, locally owned, family business serving customers from their warehouse and terminal in Sumner, Washington. Founded in 1947, Snider has a long history of serving customers in the Pacific Northwest. ExxonMobil is proud to offer its products through Snider Energy.

Snider Energy will continue to serve your business with Mobil products with no changes expected or required. As an innovation leader, ExxonMobil is focused on bringing new technologies to our products and services. ExxonMobil's goal is to continue to provide you with the quality lubricants that you have come to rely upon over the years with the Mobil brands.

We greatly appreciate your business and thank you for being a Mobil customer. Please continue to work closely with your Snider Energy and Mobil sales contacts to address any questions or concerns you may have.

Sincerely,
